NEW BOXER OUTBREAK FEAREL

LEGATION GUARD COMMANDEE HURRIED TO PEKIN.

washington Gets Alarming Stories of Angry Discontent Among the Chinese itatred of Foreigners and the Manchus tientry Opposed to Progress.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 29.-Major John H Russell, Ninth United States Marine erps, who was assigned recently to mmand the legation guards at Pekin. hina, will leave for his new post sooner han he expected. The original order issued to Major Russell relieved him from his present duty at the Naval War College, Newport, R. I., on October 1 These orders, however, have been modified so as to detach him from the War College immediately and direct him to proceed to Pekin on the steamer leaving San Francisco on October 6. The change of orders will hasten Major Russell's arrival in Pekin materially. One of the reasons for this haste is the acute political situation existing in China. For several months official information of an alarming character has been reaching Washington from the Orient. The Chinese, the reports say, are showing signs of discontent and restlessness. While no general outbreak has yet occurred, the officers of the Government are apprehensive and are taking every possible precaution against an antiforeign outbreak similar to the Boxer uprising about ten years ago.

It was reported to-day on apparently reliable authority that William J. Calhoun the United States Minister to China made a careful investigation of conditions there soon after his arrival at his new post and found them more serious than he had anticipated. It is said that Mr. Calhoun went so far as to notify Rear Admiral Hubbard, in command of the naval force in Chinese waters, to be in readiness to land marines in the event of an emergency.

According to recent official reports all the symptoms which developed prior to the Bexer troubles have reappeared. Several months ago there were antiforeign demonstrations in different parts of the empire and placards were posted inciting the people against the foreigners. About three months ago the Chinese army had a battle with revolutionists at Yuen-Kiang, in which the ragular troops were victorious. The disorder, however, his not become general and was son qualited.

Persons here who are versed in Oriental affairs say the present discontent of the Chinese is due to several economic and political causes. First of all, it is said, the people generally are beginning to take a more active interest in governmental affairs. This fact in itself has aroused considerable unrest. In the southern part of China also there is a strong feeling of antipathy to the Manchu dynasty, which is in control of affairs at Pekin. The disorder which occurred a few months at Yuen-Kiang was precipitated by a shortage in the rice crop.

In addition there has been much discontent throughout the empire with the official action of the Government at Pekin, especially in financial matters. The $30,00,000 ratiroad loan recently negotiated by China with Great Britain, the United States, France and Germany is supposed to be one of the measures which have not been approved by the Chinese people. While the lean was being negotiated the gentry of several provinces noted for their anti-foreign sentiment filed memorials at Pekin protesting against the proposed deal.

Late last night there was a rumor here that instructions had been sent to Manila directing that the troops there be held in readiness to go to China. This was denied at the War Department to-day. Such instructions would not be necessary, as the Department has in recent years kent itself constantly in readiness for was soon queiled.

Cause of Sinking of Dry Bock Dewey. WASHINGTON, Sept. 29. The Nasy Deartment has received the report of the board of investigation on the sinking of the dry dock Dewey in Subig Boy, at Olongapo, P. L. several months ago. The report showed that the valves and pipes were not kept in proper condition so far, however, responsibility for this condition has not been placed.

with a spiral that occupied ten minutes, according to the watch of the time-teeper, Walter Fairchilds. He made a final sweep of the course and landed in the centre of the field. On his last round he made a circle over the heads of the spectators in the grand stand. Claude Grahame-White, the English caude Graname-White, the English aviator, broke the field's record for carrying passengers. He borrowed Clifford Harmon's machine and after he had taken up Miss Irene Fenwick and Miss Mabel Briggs of Boston, each for a ride of two rounds of the course, Mrs. Frank Janney of Philadelphia asked for a flight. Janney of Philadelphia asked for a flight.

Mrs. Janney first objected to removing her hat, as it was pinned on so securely, but Mr. Grahame-White advised her that it would be more comfortable and safer to take it off, and she did so. He took her for a round and a half of the course and up as high as 150 feet, with a dive or two thrown. In. As soon as he descended from this flight he jumped into his auto-
